INCORPORATED

The House Committee on Territories will report a bill for the admission of Utah as a state.

State Treasurer Hale is urging the sheriff to be prompt in their collections. He wants the cash for the school teachers.

The Third Party people of Virginia heartily endorse Senator John W. Daniel's speech in the Senate on the silver question. Daniel is a sterling Democrat.

Henry Houston is a candidate for mayor of Paducah. Henry has run for Congress in this district, addressing the people of this county so frequently that his name for mayor seems like a Crittenden county name.

At Nashville both the Republicans and Democrats ignored the colored leader in making tickets for the city offices. The colored leader proposes to resist the insult by putting a negro ticket in the field. He will all ways believe that politics was made for the negro, and politics he must have no matter what because of moral considerations.

Our County Judge and County Clerk are of the opinion that, if Crittenden will curtail her financial expenditures for a couple of years, the public debt will be liquidated at the present rate of taxation. That reminds us of the fellow who could get rich if he did not have to spend his money for food and clothing.

It is a live in Marion, and are not in too big a rush, this morning, please read this from the Princeton Banner, and having read it, remember that what is said for Princeton will put a good taste in Marion's mouth:

"The first and most persistent thing a visitor or a new-comer hears when he gets to Princeton is praise of its magnificent schools. A town with pride in its schools must have something else to be proud of, and the rule will surely work in this case. A good graded school and a good college, such as Princeton has, are the making of any place."

LYON COUNTY NEWS.

(From the Tale.)

Married:—At the residence of the bride's mother, on Thursday night, Sept. 14, 1893, Mr. Van Buren Castleberry to Miss Linda Chandler. Mr. Castleberry is a well known young farmer of this county and his bride is a highly esteemed and greatly loved daughter of Mrs. John N. Chandler.

Mr. Henry Larkins, of the Blue Springs neighborhood died, last Sunday.

Whipping Post.

Wilmington, Del., Sept. 23.—At Newcastles this morning Sheriff Gould whipped nine negroes and three white men for various grades of theft.

Three of the negroes, in addition to being whipped, were obliged to stand one hour in the pillory. All of the victims were sentenced to various terms of imprisonment and fined in addition.

Largest Woman in the State.

Carlisle, Ky., Sept. 23.—Mrs. Charles, probably the largest woman in the State, died at her residence, near Meyers Station, this county, yesterday. Mrs. Charles at the time of her death weighed 361 pounds. The casket for her remains was six feet four inches in length and was too wide to be placed in the house or an ordinary spring wagon, and for this reason a large furniture truck was substituted. When taken to the house it was found that the remains would have to be brought out in the yard and placed in the coffin, as it was too large to admit being taken inside.

HOW GRADED SCHOOLS ARE TO BE CONDUCTED, DUTIES OF OFFICERS, FREE TUITION.

And Other Matters Touching These Institutions.

TREASURER, HIS DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES. SEC. 115. The said board of trustees shall appoint a treasurer for said graded common school district, who, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall, in the county court, execute bond, with securities approved by the court payable to the Commonwealth of Kentucky, for the use and benefit of the trustees of said graded common school district, conditional on the faithful performance of his duties under this article. All funds arising from the sale of bonds under this law, and all funds collected for the purpose of defraying the annual expenses of said schools, and for the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds, or for any other purpose shall go into the hands of said treasurer, who shall, together with his securities, be responsible therefor. Said treasurer shall pay out said funds only for the purpose for which they were respectively collected, upon the written order of the president and secretary of said board of trustees. Provided, no levy shall be made under the provisions of this law later than the close of the fiscal year in which the last county assessment shall have been made. The board of trustees shall, out of collections under each levy, by order set apart out of the collections of each levy a sufficient amount to pay interest for the year on any bonds issued, and in addition, shall out of the several levies, until entire payment of such bonds, set aside a sufficient amount as a sinking fund, when aggregated, to meet the principal of the bonds at maturity, which sinking fund shall be kept bonded, with ample security, or profitable invested and shall be used for no other purpose than the payment of principal of such bonds. But if the board so order the sinking fund, or any part thereof, may be used in the purchase of such bonds before maturity, except a sufficiency to pay interest on the outstanding bonds.

UNDER WAY.

WORK HAS COMMENCED ON THE NEW TARIFF LAW IN EARNEST.

No Time Will Be Lost, Nor Pains Spared to Make the Bill Meet the Demands.

Washington, Sept. 20.—Hearing before the Ways and Means Committee closed today, and now the actual work of drawing up and putting in shape the bill which is to form the new tariff law will be at once commenced. For sixteen days the committee have heard the representatives of protected industries and the importers of the protected goods from 10 o'clock in the morning until 5 or 6 in the evening. More time has been devoted by the present committee to these hearings than has ever been given by any previous committee. The bill, as affected by the new legislation, the Democratic members of the committee are justified in abiding by the original terms of the resolution, limiting the hearings until today. Chairman Wilson said this morning that the work of drafting the bill would be commenced at once.

"The Democratic members will work together," said he in response to a question. "Some of the schedules will be prepared by all the Democrats together, while others will be referred to subcommittees for preparation and afterward revised by the full Democratic membership."

"Can you give me any idea as to the length of time the preparation of the bill take?" "It is impossible to say, but it will take longer than some people, who have never had a tariff bill to prepare, seem to think necessary," was the reply. "We might fix up a measure in a very short order, but it is not that kind of a bill we want to present to the country. Legislation affecting so many interests must be very carefully considered and its effect calculated before we can hope to perfect a bill which can stand the many tests to which it will be subjected when enacted into law. Such a measure as this can not be successfully hurried. We shall, however, lose no time, and hope to present it to the House at the earliest possible moment consistent with the important interests involved."

NEED REVISION.

Gov. McCreary on the United States Varied Financial Laws.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Gov. McCreary, by invitation, addressed the Committee on Coinage, Weights and Measures this morning on his joint resolution providing for the appointment of a monetary commission. He spoke for one hour, and that committee, which has heard many arguments during this session, complimented him by saying they would probably require him to address them again. Mr. McCreary stated his belief that the mere repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman silver law would not afford permanent relief to the business interests of the country, but that an entire revision of the financial system of the country was essential. The United States, he explained, had nine different kinds of legal tender currency, a variety that no other country under the sun possessed. There were two, eight separate laws on the subject of legal tender, some of them being wholly unknown to some members of the committee.

TEN KILLED.

A Negroes Crime and Its Fatal Results.

Ronoke, Va., Sept. 20.—An attempt to avenge the honor of a woman by lynching her negro assailant caused a terrible tragedy here to-night. An attack upon the jail was repulsed by a volley from the guards and ten persons were killed.

The negro prisoner was taken from the jail by officers during the demoralization of the mob caused by the deadly volley, and was secreted in a safe place.

The original cause of the tragedy was a brutal assault made by Robert Smith, a burly negro, upon Mrs. Henry Bishop, wife of a well to do farmer of Botetourt county, whom he almost killed. Mrs. Bishop was at the market in this city with a load of produce and Smith bought a box of grapes. He asked her to go with him to get the money, and she gave it up, and while doing so jerked the razor from his hand. The negro choked her, threw and pounded her head with a brick, leaving her for dead. Mrs. Bishop shortly afterward regained consciousness and returning to the market told of the outrage.

Ronoke, Va., Sept. 21.—The negro Tom Smith, who was removed from jail last night in order to save him from the mob which attacked the jail for the purpose of lynching him, was found where the authorities tried to secrete him early this morning and lynched. His body was afterward taken to the river bank in the western part of the city and burned, in the presence of an infuriated mob of over 1,000 men.

HIGH CHIEF DEPUTY.

Mr. W. H. Clark, of Hopkinsville

Appointed by Powers.

Owensboro, Sept. 21.—Powers today appointed as high chief deputy, W. H. Clark, lawyer of Hopkinsville. Other recommendations made by the collector for appointment today were John E. Trautman, of Paducah, as gauger, R. B. Kuykendall, of Butler, and W. B. Childs, of Christian, to be store keepers.

Washington, Sept. 21.—On Collector Powers' recommendations commissions were today mailed to the following in the Second district: Albert G. Rutledge, gauger; W. A. Eastham, John B. Hestand, J. E. Payne and John F. Smith to be store keepers.

THE L. T. RHEA SUNK.

Disastrous Collision With the Grace Morris on Cottonwood Bar.

Paducah, Ky., Sept. 22.—About 8 o'clock to-night the steamer Grace Morris collided with the L. T. Rhea, on Cottonwood bar, in the Ohio river six miles above this city, and stove in her side near the fire room. The Rhea sunk in ten feet of water. The passengers were all taken off in safety by the Morris, and brought to this city.

The Rhea was going up stream. The narrowness of the channel at that point was the cause. The Rhea is the regular Paducah and Caseyville packet, and the Morris runs from here to Evansville. It is thought by some that the stranded steamer is in danger of breaking in two.

ROBBERS ROUTED.

An Attempt to Hold up a Train Defeated by Plucky Trainmen.

Centralia, Ill., Sept. 21.—The New Orleans limited train on the Illinois Central road was held up shortly after 11 o'clock last night just outside this city by three men, who boarded the train at Centralia, and in the battle which followed between the robbers and train hands one of the robbers was mortally wounded and three of the crew were badly hurt.

The shooting had aroused the passengers, and they, terrified and waking up, had been busily concealing their valuables. On the train, dead heading his way was P. J. Sanders, a brakeman on the road. He came to the rescue of the conductor and messenger with a shotgun. He attacked the robbers from the rear, and was in turn attacked by them, but he managed to escape, and the robbers got away through the fields.

Centralia, Ill., Sept. 21.—Martin Nichols and James Hardline were captured early this morning in a cornfield not far from the scene of the hold-up. A fourth man, whose name is yet unknown to the railway officials, was caught about 6 o'clock this morning at Olin, a town about ten miles north of here. When Nichols and Hardline were captured a great crowd of townspeople of Centralia had gathered about the depot, and as the prisoners were brought in the cry of "Lynch them!" was raised. Ropes were in readiness and only the courage and coolness of the officers saved the robbers from death at the hands of the mob.

HE DENIES EVERYTHING.

Mr. Breckinridge Files His Answer to Miss Pollard's Bill.

Washington, Sept. 24.—Congressman Breckinridge filed his reply to the charges made by Miss Madeline V. Pollard, of education and branch of promise, with Clerk Young at the city hall here to-day. Mr. Breckinridge denies that he ever promised to marry her, and denies that he is the father of any of her three children. He says that she accosted him when first they met and requested him to call on her at the seminary which she was attending. She intimated that a man of the name of Rhodes had betrayed her, and said she wanted legal advice. He says that the numerous charges brought against him by Miss Pollard are wholly false.

FRIGHTFUL WRECK.

Eleven Victims of a Breakman's Carelessness.

Kingsbury, Ind., Sept. 22.—Eleven persons lost their lives in a collision between a freight train and the Toronto and Montreal express on the Wabash railroad at this station at 5:30 o'clock this morning. A score of others are injured, many of whom will die.

The freight was on a siding west of the depot and was bound east. The first section of the express train passed by on the main track at 5:25 a. m. It is said that the brakeman, supposing that the freight train would now move back to open the switch. Before the cars had begun to move the second section of the fast express came west at the rate of fifty-five miles an hour, and before the brakeman could turn the switch, dashed into the side track and collided with the freight train. The wreck is complete, and the houses for miles around are filled with the dead and wounded.

NOTICE.

Crittenden County Court, September 11, 1893.

Whereas J. N. Clark and others filed with the Clerk of this court on the 14th day of August 1893, a petition signed by my more than ten of the legal voters of Marion Common School District No. 27, in Crittenden county, which petition was indorsed by the Trustees of said district and the Superintendent of Common School of said county, said petitioners being taxpayers in said common school district, praying the Judge of the Crittenden County Court to have an order made on his order book, ordering the Sheriff, whose duty it is to hold election to open a poll or cause it to be done, at the next regular State, town or city election to be held therein, or any other day fixed by the Judge of said Court in the order, for the purpose of taking the sense of the legal white voters in said school district upon the proposition to levy a tax of one cent, and a per capita tax of $1.50 on each white male inhabitant over twenty-one years of age residing in said district, for the purpose of maintaining a graded common school in said district, and for the erection of suitable buildings therefor. It is therefore ordered by the court, that the Sheriff of Crittenden county, do open or cause to be opened a poll in Marion common school district No. 27, on the 23rd day of Oct. 1893, from 7 o'clock A. M. to 4 o'clock P. M., at the school house in said district, to take the sense of the legal white voters of said district upon the proposition whether or not they will vote an annual tax of 50 cents on each $1000 dollars of property assessed in said district belonging to white citizens, and a per capita tax of $1.50 on each white male inhabitant over twenty-one years of age residing in said district, for the purpose of maintaining a graded common school in said district, and for erecting suitable buildings therefor, as provided in Article 10, Section 100, of the Common School Law. Said tax to be levied annually until the sum of $8000 is realized for the purposes aforesaid.

A copy attested. D. Woods, Clk Crit Co Court.

At the same time and place there will be a poll opened for the election of six trustees for said graded school. Jno. T. Franks, S. C. C.

RESIDENCE BURNED.

Frank Wyatt Loses His Home By Fire.

Monday the residence of Mr. Frank Wyatt, who lives near Salem, was destroyed by fire. Mr. Wyatt and wife were at Fredonia when the fire occurred and not an article was saved from their well furnished home.

How the fire originated is not known. The house itself was insured for something near its value, but the contents was not covered by a single cent of insurance. The house was a two-story frame building, and the loss was pretty heavy. A new $500 piano had been taken home but a short time.

A Big Suit.

There is to be a big law suit over the estate of J. S. Braswell, the wealthy old gentleman who died at Eddyville a few months ago. There are two sets of heirs, the children of Braswell's daughter who married S. N. Leonard, the mother being dead represent one side and are the plaintiffs, while the children of Braswell's son, who is dead, are the defendants. The Leonards claim that the Braswell children are the result of an unlawful marriage, of Charles Braswell, their father, and are therefore not entitled to inherit any portion of their grandfather's estate. The estate is variously estimated at from $50,000 to $100,000 and the suit involves one half of that amount. Messrs. James & James, of this place, have been employed by the defendants.

THE OLD SETTLERS.

The Names of Those Who Bred the Pineland Forest of Crittenton.

When They Came, Where They Settled.

Editor: Please: I have read with much interest the sketches you have published from time to time touching the early history of the county.

I have gone to some trouble in preparing a list of the early settlers of this county—the men who broke away from the colonies of the east, and carved for themselves homes in this country, while the forest was yet still unbroken. Most of this race of hardy pioneers have left their names here, and indeed, these names are perhaps more familiar to the people of today than were they when first the names were known here. I can only give you a partial list this week, and will endeavor to complete same next week.

Samuel Lofton came from South Carolina, between 1800 and 1805, and settled the place where Berry Debow now lives. He was a Presbyterian.

Gen. Ramsey, who fought valiantly in the revolutionary war, came from South Carolina in 1809, and opened a farm in the Southern portion of the county.

Joseph Tyler also came from the Pineland State, and in 1803, and began to make himself a home out of the forest. The result of his labor is a portion of the farm upon which Wm. Lamb now lives.

Wm. Young came from South Carolina in 1795, and settled the place where Henry Walker lives.

Isaac Shelby came from the same state in 1803 or 4. He was a general in the revolutionary war.

Jas. Miller from North Carolina came in 1798.

Isaac Chisn settled the old John Hogard place in 1801.

In 1795 Stephen Cruse came from South Carolina and settled the place where Henry Swanson now lives. He brought slaves with him.

Richard Cruse settled near Craynesville in 1805.

Isaac Gable from South Carolina, in 1800, settled on Piney Creek.

Andy Thomas and Aaron Shelby came from South Carolina in 1803, the latter two settled the place where Wm. Kemp lives, and Andy settled on the Flynn Ferry road.

In 1800 John Lamb came from South Carolina and opened up the place where Quincy Wilson lives.

Jas. Lamb from South Carolina in 1801.

Ruben Bellow from South Carolina in 1800, and settled where Sugar Grove church now stands.

In 1800 John Sellers from South Carolina, settled the Jas. Thurman place.

Wm. Dulaney from South Carolina in 1800, settled near the Alexander Spring.

Frank Wyatt Loses His Home By Fire.
 Monday the residence of Mr. Frank Wyatt, who lives near Salem, was destroyed by fire. Mr. Wyatt and wife were at Fredonia when the fire occurred and not an article was saved from their well furnished home.

A Big Suit.
 There is to be a big law suit over the estate of J. S. Braswell, the wealthy old gentleman who died at Eddyville a few months ago. There are two sets of heirs, the children of Braswell's daughter who married S. N. Leonard, the mother being dead represent one side and are the plaintiffs, while the children of Braswell's son, who is dead, are the defendants. The Leonards claim that the Braswell children are the result of an unlawful marriage, of Charles Braswell, their father, and are therefore not entitled to inherit any portion of their grandfather's estate. The estate is variously estimated at from $50,000 to $100,000 and the suit involves one half of that amount. Messrs. James & James, of this place, have been employed by the defendants.

THE OLD SETTLERS.

The Names of These Who Brute The Primal Forest of Crittenden.
 When They Come, Where They Settled.

Lawrence Pines. I have read with much interest the sketches you have published from time to time touching the early history of the county.
 I have gone to some trouble in preparing a list of the early settlers of this county—the men who broke away from the colonies of the west, and carved for themselves homes in this country, while the forest was yet wild and unbroken. Most of these early pioneers have left their names here, and indeed, these names are perhaps more familiar to the people of today than were those of the men who first came to this country. I can only give you a partial list this week, and will endeavor to complete same next week.

Samuel Lottan came from South Carolina, between 1800 and 1805, and settled the place where Berry Deane now lives. He was a Presbyterian.

Gen. Ramsey, who fought valiantly in the revolutionary war, came from South Carolina in 1800, and opened a farm in the Southern portion of the county.

Joseph Tyner, also came from the Palmetto State, and in 1803, and began to make himself a home out of the forest. The result of his labor is a portion of the farm upon which Wm. Lamb now lives.

Wm. Young came from South Carolina in 1795, and settled the place where Henry Walker lived.

Isaac Shelby came from the same state in 1803 or 1804. He was a general in the revolutionary war.

Jas. Miller, from North Carolina came in 1798.

Isaac Cline settled the old John Hogan place in 1804.

In 1798 Stephen Cline came from South Carolina and settled the place where Henry Ramsey now lives. He brought slaves with him.

Richard Cline settled near Crayneysville in 1800.

Isaac Cline, from South Carolina, in 1800, settled in Perry Creek.

Andy Thomas and Aaron Shelby came from South Carolina in 1800, the latter two settled the place where Wm. Kemp lives, and Andy settled on the Lexington Ferry road.

In 1800 John Lamb came from South Carolina and opened up the place where Quincy Wilson lives.

Jas. Lamb from South Carolina in 1804.

Ruben Bellow from South Carolina 1800, and settled where Sugar Grove church now stands.

In 1800 John Sellers from South Carolina, settled the Jas. Thurman place.

Wm. Dulaney from South Carolina in 1804, settled near the Alexander Springs.

Jacob, Daniel and Samuel Cridger came from Virginia in 1796, Jacob settled the place where Calvin Barris lives; Daniel settled near Piney Fork church; Samuel settled land now owned by W. B. Cridger and E. H. Porter. The Cridgers were the first people to grow tobacco in the county.

John Cline came from South Carolina in 1803 or 1804 and settled the place where the school house that bears his name now stands. He owned slaves, and it was said had slave blood in his veins.

Very Respy,
 Mrs. Laura Skelton.

Last fall I was taken with a kind of summer complaint, accompanied with a wonderful diarrhoea. Soon after my wife's sister, who lives with us, was taken in the same way. We used almost everything without benefit. Then I said, let us try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which we did, and that cured us right away. I think much of it, as it did for me what it was recommended to do. John Hertzler, Bethel, Berks County, Pa. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Moore & Orme.

The Old People.
BY EDITH J. LINSLEY.

When I see the old people
Toiling down the steep of years, Alone heart overladen with feeling
And my eyes rush full of tears.

Life with a little wandering beauty,
Two behind them for away,
And their sweetest hopes are scattered
Like dead leaves along the way.

They have seen their earliest idols
Fall around them one by one;
They have seen their youth vanish
Just as snow-wreath in the sun.

They have seen fond baby faces—
With adoring gentle eyes—
Change to careless men and women,
Forsaking other loves and ties.

They have seen their old friends buried
Or pass far to other lands;
Till their yearning throats only Meet the clasp of stranger hands.

And their faces now are faded,
That were fair when life was new,
And are crossed and crossed with wrinkles
Like a page all written true.

Now their eyes are dim with weeping
That were joyous once and strong;
And their poor, worn forms are bending
With the life cross borne so long.

"They are with us yet a little,"
But no longer as of old;
For the Father's call is written,
Bright on every cheek and brow.

They are nearing, with slow footsteps
That falter of all hands,
They will soon dwell in the mansion
That were never built with hands.

They will soon be with a vision,
Clearer than the eyes of youth;
They will see, Oh! soon, my friend,
All the mysteries of truth.

When I see these blessed people
Passing slowly here and there,
In my heart there comes a feeling,
Like the spirit of a prayer.

That while they yet may linger
With their pure and patient love,
Has a link that flows no nearer
To that radiant home above.

The Mother Grown Old.

Grown old the mother is sometimes sorrowful, chagrined and freed from the blessed illusions of youth. When her children were little things playing about the door, and tucked into bed all safe, sweet and cozy, she had her dreams of their future. There was nothing too bright, too happy, too beautiful, for her imagination and her hope as she looked at her darling, sleeping or waking. As they grew older, went to school and to college, or into the shop and counting room, the mother still dreamed and planned, still wore her enchanted stories, in the center of which she saw her children, heroes, princesses, scholars, benefactors, champions of the weak, defenders of the helpless, ornaments of the age and renewed to be. Her Frank, her Charles, her Ellis, whatever others might do, they were bound to excel to stand in the van, to reap the rewards, to scale the heights, to discover the long-hidden secrets.

But there came a day upon the mother when, grown old, as wrinkles and gray hairs testify, she renounces the wonderful keenness and acuteness of childhood; she sees the dropping of many masks; she comprehends things as they are. Past the hour of dreaming and wish-fulfillment, past the return and the mirage, her vision is like that of one of God's angels.

Three Shot near Crab Orchard.
Crab Orchard, Ky., Sept. 23.—A tragedy occurred at Dripping Springs three miles east of here, this afternoon, in which Rodney Singleton, a young farmer, was killed, D. G. Slaughter, proprietor of Green River Springs, was fatally shot, and a young man by the name of William Stanger, was seriously wounded.

Dripping Springs is a summer resort in the edge of the mountains.
The proprietors gave an old-fashioned picnic and dance there today. Slaughter was prompting the dance, when Bill Stanger, having drunk mortally, came in, in a maudlin condition, and proceeded to create a disturbance. Slaughter ordered him from the hall room, and the Lacey brothers, who were friends of Slaughter's, and took to excite orders.

A Fatal Fight.

Yesterday morning at 5 o'clock, on a farm about 10 miles from Dripping Springs, in Henderson county, Mr. William Clayman and two other men got into a quarrel over a horse. The quarrel was furious and resulted in a fight between the three men. Mr.
Clayman was the aggressor. Wood, one of the participants, drew his knife and first drew it across Clayman's throat, making a bad but not very serious wound. He then stabbed Clay-man several times in the back, and then in the bowels. The latter wound it is thought will prove fatal. Dr.
James H. Leachner was called and with three or four other doctors present, attended the wounded man.

We understand the doctors think there is no chance for saving the life of Clayman. A warrant was sworn out for Wood, the man who did the cutting, but up to a late hour he had not been found. Henderson Advertiser.

Murdered and Robbed.

Mr. Vernon, Ky., Sept. 23.—A Polish peddler named Terz Hajy was murdered and robbed by two negro thugs late yesterday about two miles south of town. One of the negroes, who gave his name as William Henry, was arrested last night on a freight train at Pittsburg, in Laurel county. He was brought here today, and admitted his guilt. A negro known only as Jack, thought to be the other murderer, was arrested today in Laurel county.
